

I am also adamantly opposed to any measure in weakening this program. I am also glad it extends to cell phones. Noone should be given the right to contact anyone who does not want to be contacted, especially when they say DO NOT CALL. It is my right to say NO.